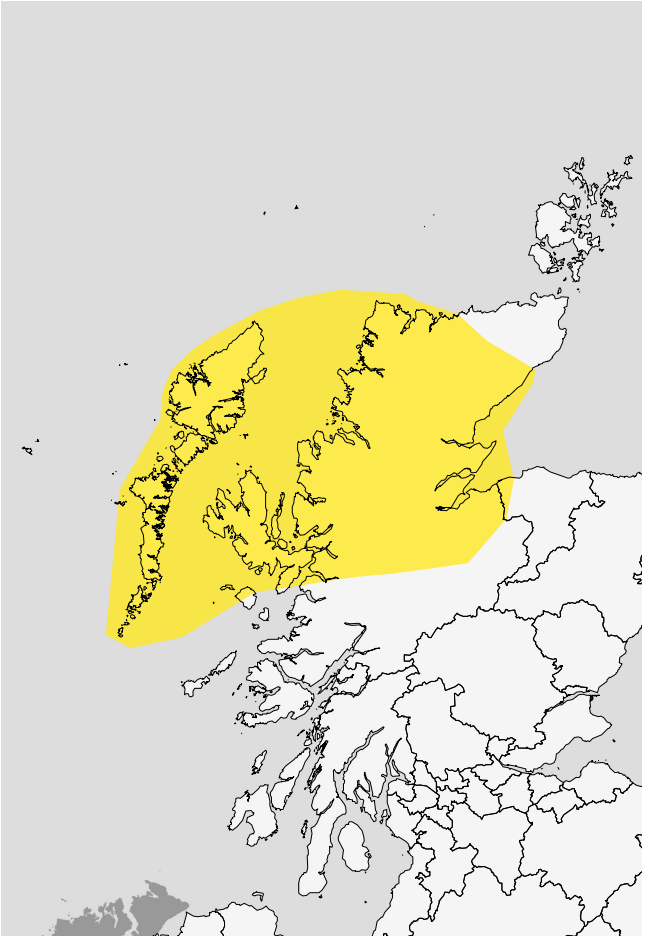
Yellow warning
Wind

Between
11:00 Sun 28 Jan 2024 and
17:00 Sun 28 Jan 2024



Strong winds may cause some disruption during Sunday

What to expect

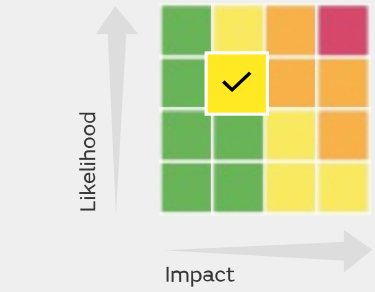
- Some delays to road, air and ferry transport are likely
- Probably some bus services affected, with some journeys taking longer
- Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes and bridges likely
- Some short term loss of power and other services is possible
- It's likely that some coastal routes, sea fronts and coastal communities will be affected by spray and/or large waves

Further details

Very strong southerly winds will develop during Sunday, peaking late morning through the afternoon before slowly easing during the evening. Gusts of 60-70 mph are likely with a few places perhaps seeing gusts up to 80 mph.

What should I do?

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts

People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.

If you are on the coast, stay safe during stormy weather by being aware of large waves. Even from the shore large breaking waves can sweep you off your feet and out to sea. Take care if walking near cliffs; know your route and keep dogs on a lead. In an emergency, call 999 and ask for the Coastguard.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.
